

“I protect myself
so I can love
without fear.”

Early HIV detection is the most important step in keeping you, and those you care about, safe. If you're HIV positive, using treatment as prevention is a highly effective strategy to prevent the transmission of the virus. If you're HIV negative, there are drugs like PrEP that can help keep you that way.

Get tested.
Know your status.
Learn what's next.

KnowYourHIVStatus.com

- Marco